Acrylic Artwork

Anne Suse Smith is a multi award winning photographer who lives with her family in the Whitsundays.

Anne did not set out to be a photographer and started taking images as a form of therapy to reduce the stress of a very demanding career but over a short period of time it became her passion.

Anne decided to study photography in order to become a better photographer and now spends her spare time refining and perfecting her work, particularly her Fine Art work.

Anne wants her viewers to appreciate the fleeting beauty of those in-between moments and every emotions, she believes photography is a beautiful journey of discovery and welcomes you to her...
