Pot Covers / Tidy Bags made from Washable Kraft Paper

- A washable, extremely resilient and flexible material that looks like leather but is actually environmentally friendly paper
- Create your own height and look. Fold, roll, scrunch to suit
- Has high stitch tear & wet strength for washing & outdoor exposure
- Highly resistant & durable (tear proof)
- Natural fibre construction
- A beautiful organic look
- Lightweight and easy to handle
- Dimensionally stable and does not shrink or stretch

"Scrunched" Organic Look

Smooth Folded Look

These environmentally friendly recyclable pot covers or tidy bags can be used for a whole range of different uses. A few ideas for their uses are: pot covers for your pot plants & herbs (cover is not waterproof—saucer or plastic liner can be used), fruit bowls, storage for make up, kids toys, or to just hold your nick-knacks.

Acrylic Artwork

Anne Suse Smith is a multi award winning photographer who lives with her family in the Whitsundays.

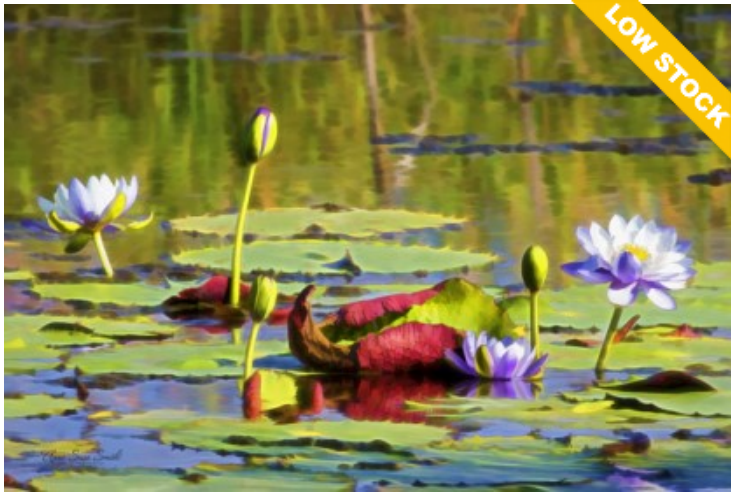

Anne did not set out to be a photographer and started taking images as a form of therapy to reduce the stress of a very demanding career but over a short period of time it became her passion.

Anne decided to study photography in order to become a better photographer and now spends her spare time refining and perfecting her work, particularly her Fine Art work.

Anne wants her viewers to appreciate the fleeting beauty of those in-between moments and everyday emotions, she believes photography is a beautiful journey of discovery and welcomes you to join her...
